

Mindful Mutterings #6

Read the lie. Then read the scripture and the bolded Greek or Hebrew definitions. Meditate on them for a few minutes. Denounce the lie and pronounce the truth. Do you see an additional lie or truth? Write it down. Denounce the lies and mutter the truths under your breath several times a day for at least 21 days, until you know them by heart. Try to memorize the scriptures (at least memorize the main idea). When Satan or anyone else (including you) speaks the lie, mutter the truth in response. THE TRUTH WILL SET YOU FREE!

*Definitions are taken from Strong's Exhausted Concordance which is based on the KJV. I've used corresponding words in different versions.

The Lie	The Truth
I am responsible for my children's mistakes	II Corinthians 5:10: For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may receive what is due us for what he has done in the body, whether good or evil Receive: obtain Speak the Truth: I'm sorry for what I've done wrong, but my children are ultimately responsible for their own mistakes
No one should tell me how to raise my kids.	Proverbs 19:20 Listen to advice and accept discipline, and at the end you will be counted among the wise. Wise: to be wise in mind, word, or act Speak the Truth: I will listen to advice so I can become a wise person.
Because of my mistakes, my child will never get back on the right path	Proverbs 16:9 A person's heart plans his way, but the Lord determines his steps determines: sets up Speak the Truth: God is determining my child's steps.
